Dear Mr. Winchester:

This is in response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request of June 7, 2012, which was received in this office on June 14, 2012. Your request has been assigned case number NW 38092. You requested access to Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Denver Field Office Case File 100-DN-9353 regarding Hunter Stockton Thompson. This file is part of Record Group 65, Records of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (location: 490/38/28/6, box 162).

We conducted a search and located the file, which contains approximately 46 pages. The file concerns an internal security investigation of Hunter Stockton Thompson, conducted by the FBI from 1967 through 1971. We have placed your request in our First Tier Simple Case processing queue (less than 150 pages). We will process your request by the end of the summer.

The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) has limited authority to release national security or other sensitive information. Pursuant to 5 USC 552(a)(6)(B)(iii)(III), if you have requested information that is classified, it will be necessary to send copies of the documents to appropriate agencies for further review. If the records are unclassified, but we determine that there are other sensitivities, such as personal privacy, NARA will conduct the review of the file.

Please advise us of any change of address that may occur during the time that it takes to complete your case. To contact us regarding a change in your contact information or for information regarding your case, we can be reached by email at specialaccess_foia@nara.gov or by telephone at 301-837-3190. You may also write to us at the address below (Special Access and FOIA Staff, RD-DC Room 6350). In the event any correspondence to you from this office is returned as undeliverable, no forwarding address, we will presume you are no longer interested in pursuing the case, and the case will be closed.

We will notify you as soon as all review is complete.
